Policy on Anti-Ragging

In pursuant to the judgment of the Honorable Supreme Court dated 08-05-2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009, and to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging in Educational institutes, the University Grant Commission (UGC) has bring forth appropriate "Regulation on curbing the menace of Ragging in Higher Education Institutions, 2009". Keeping these directives and guidelines into consideration, Govt. Degree College Uri has adopted a Zero Tolerance Policy towards Anti Sexual harassment and Ragging. Ragging is a criminal offence and it is a violation of human rights.

Ragging, as defined by the Honble Supreme Court of India in its landmark judgment in 2001, is "Any disorderly conduct weather by words spoken or written or by in act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, including in rowdy are undisciplined activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course add which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student".

As per the Clause -3, UGC Regulation 2009

Raging is "Any act of physical or mental abuse (including bullying and exclusion) targeted at another student (fresher or otherwise) on the ground of colour, race, religion, caste, ethnicity, gender (including transgender), sexual orientation, appearance, nationality, regional origins, linguistic identity, place of birth, place of residence or economic background now amounts of raging."

The Govt. Degree College Uri is committed itself to provide a congenial, conducive and peaceful atmosphere in which students, teachers and non teaching staff can work together in an environment free of violence harassment, exploitation and intimidation.

Objectives of the Anti Ragging Policy:

1. To implement the directives and guidelines issued by the Honble Supreme Court and UGC regarding in the institution.
2. To investigate, deliberate and take necessary measures with regard to cases of raging and other untoward incidences that may take place in the institution.
3. To administer appropriate disciplinary measures when a violation is found to have occurred as provided by this policy.
4. To prevent the occurrence of raging cases in the institution.
5. To conduct workshop or awareness programme to curb the raging menace and orient the students.
6. To create a secure, candid and conducive physical and social environment this will deter acts of raging.
7. To institutionalize Raging policy in the institution in letter and spirit.
